Happy? Ok? Sad?

Wednesday 10th October was National Mental Health day. We all deserve to enjoy life and feel well. Sometimes however, we need information, advice or support to help us cope with life's up and downs.

Visit www.happyoksad.org.uk, Warrington's own online directory of support services. You'll find links there on:

Bagel Bar Begins...

Breakfast. Not everybody has one. That's why, after half term, we are opening our Bagel Bar. Watch this space...

Harvest Worship

On Monday, our whole school community got together in St James' Church for a special Harvest Service of thanksgiving. Each class performed a song, poem or a reading to help us appreciate all of God's gifts. The whole service was wonderful—a joy to watch! We were especially pleased to welcome so many of our families into church—thank you for your support.

The children brought gifts of food for Warrington Food Bank and Dave McDonald, the food bank's manger joined us, telling us all about the local people who would benefit from the generosity of our families. On their behalf, thank you very, very much.
