Proverbs 19:17

Whoever is generous to the poor lends to the Lord, and he will repay him for his deed.

Half term—a well earned rest for everyone.

Eco-Schools

Our Eco-schools committee met this week and agreed their mission to make us all more environmentally friendly.

They have requested that they have a space on our newsletter so they can share eco tips with our school community. They have asked children throughout school for their ideas and we'll be publishing these here weekly. Children who's tips are published will receive a certificate in Celebration Worship to recognise their effort to make the world a better place. Watch this space!

Well done to Y2 for winning the attendance trophy last week with 98.7%.

Could we remind everyone that when dropping off and picking children up from nursery that the gate to school should be kept clear. Access is required to the school car park at all times. Thank you for your help with this matter.

On Friday 4th November we will be holding a Bonfire Themed Lunch. It will cost £2.20 and can be paid for on the day.

Half term holiday.

It's hard to believe that a half term has flown by already! It has, however, been a very rewarding and exciting one. Children and new colleagues have settled into their new classes and are all learning really hard. I'd like to thank our families for all of their support and encouragement and wish you all a very happy holiday. Please remember that school re-opens on Tuesday 1st November .

Junior Safety Officers

We want all of our children to know how to keep themselves safe in all sorts of situations: on the road; on the internet; near rivers and anywhere else there may be hazards.

We have appointed two Junior Safety Officers who will become experts in all things safety and share their learning with the rest of the school community. Their names are Penny Hallmark and Leo Bennett. Look out for their advice on notice boards, our website and on newsletters.

Our Early Years department are revamping their outdoor play to make it even better. If you are having a clear out over the holiday Mrs Yates would be grateful of any old pans/spoons, wellingtons and old hats for the outdoor play area. Your help is appreciated.
