Stay Safe Team

Next week is all about staying safe! We want all of our children to have a range of strategies for keeping themselves safe in all sorts of situations.

On Monday, the NSPCC will be leading our assemblies and helping children to stay safe. On Tuesday, it's E-Safety day and each class, at a level that's appropriate to them, will be finding out how to stay safe online. On Wednesday, our Safety Officers will be talking to the children about internet safety too. They have been working with our PCSO, Tony Spruce, to make our start and end to the school day safer. You may see them talking to parents next week about safe parking.

We haven't forgotten about parents—you have an enormous role to play in setting children up for success. On Friday afternoon, from 2-3pm, O2 will be delivering a parent's session on the dangers and the opportunities offered by the internet. All are welcome and we're hoping for a full hall!
